Training dates: Oct 14 – Oct 15, 2026 Venue: Khubilai Hotel, Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia

THE PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF THE 2017 CONTRACTS (RED, YELLOW, SILVER, AND WHITE BOOKS) TOGETHER WITH THE 2022 AMENDMENTS

Batbayar & Partners LLP Law firm is organizing this training for the 11th consecutive year in collaboration with London-based ECV (European Construction Ventures) Consultancy Ltd.

ABOUT FIDIC

FIDIC (International Federation of Consulting Engineers) is an organization that drafts international standard forms of contract widely used in construction and infrastructure projects.

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

Delivered by professional trainers with extensive international experience, this training aims to provide comprehensive knowledge on the structure and practical application of the new FIDIC contracts (Red, Yellow, Silver, and White Books). The training is designed to help the delegates have confidence in working with these contract forms, by addressing the proper selection of contract forms, allocation of rights and obligations between parties, payment terms, and dispute resolution methodologies.
